BLACK LIBERATION STRUGGLE SHOWS PROGRESS

Chairman Mao's great statement points out direction of struggle of the Black people in the United States

Five years ago, on August 8, 1963, Chairman Mao Tse-tung of the People's Republic of China issued his "Statement Supporting the Black Liberation in our 'Joint Struggle Against Racial Discrimination by U.S. Imperialists.'" This statement of Chairman Mao's, which is of great historic importance, is an expression of his deep concern and resolute support for the broad masses of struggling Black Liberators and all the exploited and oppressed people in the United States. It provides a powerful ideological and theoretical basis for their revolutionary struggle, points out the direction and the road of their advance and gives immense inspiration to Black Liberation and revolutionary people throughout the world.

"The statement of Chairman Mao's issued five years ago pointed out that the 'the evil system of colonialism and imperialism arose and thrives with the enslavement of Negroes and the trade in Negroes, and it will surely come to its end with the complete emancipation of the Black people.'" The vigorous development of the Black Liberation struggle against violent oppression and the revolutionary struggle of the people throughout the world in the past five years have overwhelmingly proved that this great prediction and vital conclusion by Chairman Mao will become a shining reality.
